

RHODE ISLAND – INTERNAL MEDICINE- WOMEN'S HEALTH

Large Multi-specialty group is seeking two BC/BE Internal Medicine physicians to join our established women's health practice at both our East Providence and Bristol office locations. This position offers a competitive salary/incentive bonus along with a generous benefit package and excellent call schedule 1:11. Our group admits to two academic hospitals that are affiliated with Brown University Medical School and Boston University.

Our East Providence office is only minutes away from Providence and approximately fifty minutes from Boston.

Positions available immediately and also for July 2014.
