To be considered for publication, submissions should include:

Brief title

8 words or less

Content

400–600 words. Relevant clinical information, findings, clinical course, and response to treatment if initiated.

Images

Provide 2–6 original, high-resolution images which have not been published elsewhere, separately, and in their original file format. Any identifying information should be removed from the image.

Prior to submission, written permission to publish the images must be provided by the patient if recognizable in the images.

Low-resolution images will not be accepted. Note, images may be reduced to 3–4 inches in width for publication.

Legends

All labeled structures in the image should be described and explained in the legend.

Author Affiliations

Biographical information for each contributing author must accompany the manuscript submission. Affiliations for each contributing author should be listed in a separate sentence for each.

In each sentence include:

- Author name
- Academic, professional degree(s)
- Academic or institutional affiliations
- City and state

Correspondence

Include the name, title, and current position of the corresponding author with mailing address, telephone, fax, and e-mail address.

If relevant, also include:

Acknowledgment

Include research or project support/funding by individuals, organizations or institutions in an acknowledgment.

Disclaimer

A disclaimer is used to separate the views of the authors from those of employers, funding agencies, organizations, or others.

Example: The views expressed herein are those of the authors and do not necessarily reflect the views of the US Army or the Department of Defense.

Financial disclosure

All authors will need to complete a RIMJ financial disclosure form, available here. It can be filled out electronically or copied and scanned.
