Letters to the Editor are considered for publication (subject to editing and peer review) provided they do not contain material that has been submitted or published elsewhere.

The Rhode Island Medical Journal prefers to publish letters that objectively comment on or critically assess previously published articles, offer scholarly opinion or commentary on journal content, or include important announcements or other information relevant to the Journal's readers.

Letters in reference to a Journal article should be approximately 500 words or less (excluding references), and must be received within four weeks after publication of the article.

A letter can have no more than five references and one figure or table. A letter can be signed by no more than six authors. The corresponding author should include address, phone number, email. Financial associations or other possible conflicts of interest must be disclosed.
